Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.(a) and (b) Changes in Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

On March 4, 2009, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of A. H. Belo Corporation approved the engagement of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2009, subject to KPMG's completion of its client acceptance process. On March 30, 2009, KPMG informed the Company that KPMG had completed this process. Attached as Exhibit 99.1 is the Company's press release announcing the KPMG engagement.

During the years ended December 31, 2007 and December 31, 2008 and through March 30, 2009, neither the Company nor anyone on its behalf has consulted KPMG with respect to either (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, and neither a written report nor oral advice was provided to the Company that KPMG concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to any accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue; or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K and the related instructions to Item 304 of Regulation S-K) or a reportable event (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K).

In connection with the selection of KPMG, the Audit Committee decided not to continue the engagement of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm effective as of March 31, 2009. The reports of Ernst & Young LLP ("Ernst & Young") on the Company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2007 and December 31, 2008 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of an opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

In connection with the audits of the years ended December 31, 2007 and December 31, 2008 and through March 31, 2009, there were (1) no disagreements (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K and the related instructions to Item 304 of Regulation S-K) with Ernst & Young on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Ernst & Young, would have caused Ernst & Young to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in its reports on the financial statements of such years; and (2) no events of the type listed in paragraphs (A) through (D) of Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company has provided Ernst & Young with a copy of the above disclosures, and has requested Ernst & Young to furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether or not it agrees with the statements made above. A copy of Ernst & Young's letter dated March 31, 2009 is attached as Exhibit 16.1 to this Report.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

NEWSPAPER PUBLISHER A. H. BELO CORPORATION ANNOUNCES
ENGAGEMENT OF NEW AUDITING FIRM AND NOMINATION OF DIRECTOR

DALLAS – Newspaper publisher A. H. Belo Corporation (NYSE: AHC) announced today that the Company has engaged KPMG LLP as its independent registered public accounting firm, succeeding Ernst & Young LLP. Robert W. Decherd, chairman, president and Chief Executive Officer, said, “We thank Ernst & Young for the service they have provided to A. H. Belo before and after its transition to a separate public company. KPMG was selected after a thorough proposal process that carefully considered the needs of A. H. Belo in these challenging economic times. Our team looks forward to working with KPMG in its new role.”

A. H. Belo also announced that its Board of Directors has nominated Tyree B. (Ty) Miller for election as a director of the Company at the annual meeting of shareholders on May 14, 2009. If elected, Miller will be a Class III director and his term will expire at A. H. Belo’s 2011 annual meeting. The A. H. Belo Board will have eight directors with the addition of Miller.

Miller, 55, is a private investor whose professional career was spent primarily with Bank One and its successor JPMorgan Chase. During his 28-year career with Bank One, Miller held several executive positions, including President and Chief Executive Officer of Bank One Global Treasury Services from 2000-2004 and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Bank One, Texas NA from 1998-2000. From October 2005 to February 2008, Miller was a Venture Partner with Austin Ventures, a venture capital firm. Miller is also active in numerous industry and civic affairs.

“We are truly pleased that Ty Miller has agreed to join the A. H. Belo Board while the Company and the newspaper industry face so many challenges,” said John P. Puerner, Chairman of the Nominating and Governance Committee and Lead Director.

“Ty’s background in banking and working with companies to re-think business models will add immediate value to the Board’s deliberations.”
